

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

Your Monthly
Systematic Guide to Success

ISSUE 001

JANUARY 5, 2026

VOL. 001

”

This month, our focus is on goal setting. Leaders who are able to earn the trust of their people will result in their people aligning behind a common mission, vision, goal or strategy.

Featured Article: The Pursuit of Excellence

Discover how being effective at managing your team can be a game-changer for your own personal growth and that of your leadership team! This article explains the concept of leading people not micro managing them and illustrates how your own behaviors as a manager may impact the behaviors of your direct reports and by using these systematic leadership essentials it can significantly reduce time spent on low level issues which will allow other potential leaders to emerge and gain the necessary exposure and experience they need.

Spotlight: This Month's Top All Star Performer is Terra Power

This month, TerraPower has emerged as a standout performer in the nuclear energy sector. The nuclear power plant project in southwest Wyoming has cleared one of the last hurdles in securing a federal construction permit. The company, who is backed by Microsoft founder Bill Gates, hopes to prove out a new technology in the sagebrush desert a few miles outside of Kemmerer. If successful, it promises to generate additional electricity for the state while emitting less emissions than alternative energy sources or older nuclear power plant technologies. Keep up with stories like these and much more with our monthly newsletter. JMS

UPCOMING EVENTS

Webinar: Career Growth Strategies

Join us for an insightful webinar on Career growth strategies! Learn from industry experts about key techniques, industry trends, and how to learn /advance your proficiency using the Systematic approach. Whether you're a beginner or mid-career looking to enhance your skills

Workshop: Leadership Basics

Take control of your team /department with our "Leadership Basics" workshop! This interactive session will guide you through creating a personnel action plan for tracking department goals and setting realistic timelines for implementing those goals. Whether you're just starting out or looking to refine your leadership skills